

English Country Dance Repertoire - Tuesday ECD

We've talked about identifying a repertoire of English dances for the Tuesday night series as a convenience for our dance leaders. By "repertoire," we mean that we're happy to have any of these dances repeated more than once a season.

- The list is not meant to limit the dances chosen by dance leaders.
- We definitely don't expect the dancers to know the repertoire dances without calls.

So: the repertoire list is a set of reliable dances to fall back on. Think of it as a license for leaders to choose to call a dance that has already been called.

In making the list, we've given priority to old dances that are done frequently elsewhere, but some are more recently composed dances that look like they could become classics. Most are Playford style dances, but a few are traditional; most are longways, but there's a mix of set dances and circle formations. The list offers a range of simple to more complex dances and a mix of time signatures. All have good tunes and are fun to do.
